

AGRIBUSINESS

Grow your farm and agribusiness book with in-the-field tech and workers' comp from Foresight

Your clients are bringing food and goods to homes across the country—and around the world. Foresight is committed to bringing their people home safe at the end of the day, and helping your client keep insurance and operating costs low at the same time. We do just that through Safesite, the most innovative safety app and virtual consulting service available in workers' compensation insurance today. Foresight's policyholders experience an average 18% claims frequency reduction, customized safety planning and consulting, and a holistic approach to improved safety engagement and loss reduction. With time saved through digitization, your clients can focus on running their business — not worrying about insurance.
